

Awake and Sing

Robert D. Brinsmead

Floyd Saylor

1. A - wake now and sing, Let hills and val - leys 2. A - wake now and sing, Be joy - ful in your ring! A - wake! for the dawn her - King. Let Zion's sons re - joice and praise your com - ing King To the Him with one voice. Mouth with judg - ment of His peo - ple there to laugh - ter, toungue with sing - ing for the end the reign of sin. Tell the na-tions Christ is great things He hath done. Said the hea-then when they com-ing, Ar-ma-ged-don's war to win. Light is heard us, God hath done great things for them. He has break-ing church is wak-ing to the tread of com-ing pleas-ure in His peop-le, He will beau-ti-fy the King. Hark, the trum-pet call-ing Is-rael 'neath the meek. With sal-va-tion and with vic-t'ry strong in shel - ter of His wings, Then a - wake now and Him shall be the weak. Then a - wake now and sing, let the hills and val - leys ring! A - sing, let the hills and val - leys ring! With wak - en for the morn - ing comes. A - rise, my songs of faith and ho - ly cheer. A - rise, my soul, and sing!

soul, and sing!
